Vision Problems Linked to Poor Grades
If Junior is coming home with poor grades, it might be worth checking how well he can see. With nearly one in four children having vision problems, experts say many children with academic issues actually could be having trouble because they cannot see up close to read or cannot see far enough to make out what is on the board. Children with undiagnosed vision problems often have problems following what the rest of the class is doing or get to a point that they just do not want to read at all. Studies indicate that as many as 60% of children identified as "problem learners" actually have undetected vision problems that may be stunting their academic development.

Step 6: AFTER THE PROCESS, YOU WILL GET A CONFIRMATION PAGE

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the registration confirmation page for yourhomework.com. The address bar shows the URL: http://www.yourhomework.com/registration_done.html?mess=Registration+successful,+please+check+your+email. The page features the yourhomework.com logo and navigation links for Students/Parents, Teachers, Librarians, Shopping/Fundraising, and About Us. A central graphic reads "Welcome BACK TO SCHOOL with the new yourhomework.com!". Below this, the site name is repeated, followed by the message "Registration successful, please check your email". A login box with fields for User Name and Password, and a "Login" button with a "Lost password?" link, is visible. A "Registration Tips Video" section with a "Click to play" button and "Check your email" text is on the right. The main content area contains a thank-you message and instructions to check email for a confirmation email, with a red box highlighting the instruction: "As part of our verification process, we have sent a confirmation email to the address you specified. Please follow the instructions in the email to confirm your address and get started with your account at yourhomework.com." A note explains that if the email is not received, users should check their junk/spam mailbox or click a link to re-send the email. Finally, it states that once verified, users can log in with their chosen credentials and that the confirmation email contains login details or a "Lost Password?" link.
