Brandon Lee Memorial Unveiled!

In June of 2011, a student at Cameron Middle School, Brandon Jee Gong Lee, passed away of Leukemia. Brandon struggled before he was diagnosed and became weak. He fought hard with cancer for quite a while with his friends standing right beside him making him feel stronger, but in the end, Leukemia won the battle and he unfortunately passed.

Brandon was a great student, a wonderful child, an amazing saxophone player, and a friend of many, many people.

While Brandon Lee was in the hospital, he was unable to attend the Spring Band Concert – something he had looked forward to for such a long time.

In October 2011, Mrs. Dupuis, the band director here at Cameron opened a memorial for Brandon Lee in her room. There is a piece of artwork that Brandon helped create in his social group. Also in the memorial is a plaque.

Brandon Lee's mother has been making Dragonfly pins that are for sale for $1.00. You can buy them in the main office, or in the band room from Mrs. Dupuis. Brandon Lee may be gone, but we can always see him in his art, hear him in music, and we will always, always hold him in our hearts.

KIM K. AND KRIS H. DIVORCE?

On October 31st, news got out that Kim Kardashian will divorce Kris Humphries 72 days after their wedding! It is rumored that the split was caused by not having enough privacy in their new NYC pad, but it is also rumored that Kris cheated on Kim! Divorcing 72 days after their $10 million wedding, Kris is still out for keeping the marriage strong. The couple made about $6 million each for the wedding. Kim plans to keep the $2 million 20.5 carat diamond engagement ring. All of Kim's Family is supporting her decision, and helping her get through this tough time. Some say that this wedding was all just to make money and for reality T.V. Kim confronts the paparazzi and says that the marriage was not fake. Kris found out about the divorce from the media, and Kim went to Minnesota to set closure for the couple. Kim also says that they will stay friends and everything will be alright. On 11/5/11, Saturday Night Live made a spoof of the wedding and called it "Kim's Fairytale Divorce." It made it like the wedding but instead, it was the divorce and the actors gave interviews about the divorce. It actually pointed out key details, but exaggerated about the behavior of the couple. Though it may be funny, some people say that they mocked and humiliated the Kardashians and Kris Humphries. To find out more information on the divorce, watch the news, Extra, Access Hollywood, read magazines, and go online. Catch up with the news to see what's going on in their life, and don't forget to watch Keeping Up With The Kardashians to see what else is happening. That's all for now!

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION

The play "Once on This Island" is directed by Mrs. Maura Moore. This is her 4th year directing plays at Cameron Middle School, and also the 7th play she has directed at Cameron. Some previous plays she has done at our school include "I Never Saw Another Butterfly" (which won a Silver Medal at a competition,) and "The Wiz." Some others who are helping out with the musical are Mrs. Dupuis (Tech Crew,) Mrs. Dinsky (Music,) Callie Lewellyn (Choreography,) and Evellyn Camillo (Assistant Director.). A cross between Romeo and Juliet and The Little Mermaid, "Once on This Island" is the story of a poor island girl, saved from a storm by the Gods for something special. Ti Moune searches for more in life and finds the opportunity when she sees the crashed car of a rich Grand Homme, Daniel. She cares for him day and night, surprising and scaring the rest of the people in her village. When Daniel's family comes to take him back to the other side of the island, Ti Moune is determined to stay with him and travels by foot to get to him. When she arrives, Daniel allows her to stay, which ends up surprising all of the people in the village, especially his father. Daniel is told that he must tell Ti Moune to leave and tell her he is engaged to Andrea, another Grand Homme. When Daniel breaks Ti Moune's heart..... Come see the play on Dec. 15 and 16 to find out the finish of the sentence!
