

*New School, New Baby, New Home:
Preparing for Transitions in the Young Child's Life*

Sponsored by the Early Childhood Alliance of Framingham, the Framingham Public Library, and the Metro West Jewish Day School

When big changes occur in little lives, the whole family feels the effects! How can we help our youngest children prepare for the big transitions that occur when they'll be entering a new school, greeting a new brother or sister, or moving to a new home? Practical tips and understanding early development will be the focus of this talk, along with plenty of time for questions and answers.

About the Presenter: Phoebe K. Schnitzer, PhD, Clinical/School Psychologist, Director of Special Education Services at Metro West Jewish Day School. For over 35 years, a licensed psychologist with a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Harvard University, Dr. Schnitzer has worked with children and families through the Judge Baker Children's Center in Boston, where she held a series of senior administrative positions. During that time, Dr. Schnitzer served on the psychology staff of Children's Hospital Medical Center and held a teaching appointment at Harvard Medical School. Currently, she is a Research Scholar at the Brandeis Women's Studies Research Center. She has worked in local Jewish day school settings since 2001.

Location: Framingham Public Library, 49 Lexington Street, Costin Room

Date: When: Tuesday, March 27, 2012

Time: 6:30 -8:00

For more information or if you need childcare during the workshop, call Jane Cohen DeHaven at 508-782-6932 or e-mail at jdehaven@framingham.k12.ma.us

This family education workshop is sponsored by the Framingham Public Library and the Early Childhood Alliance of Framingham, a Coordinated Family and Community Engagement funded by the Department of Early Education and Care and administered by the Framingham Public Schools.

Special thanks to the generous support of the Metrowest Jewish Day School in providing the presenter!