When: Saturday, May 5, 2012
Time: 10:00 -11:00

About your presenter: Carolina Gómez-Kramer grew up in Colombia, South America. She holds a Bachelors degree in Modern Languages from La Universidad del Valle in Colombia and a Masters in Intercultural Relations from Lesley University in Boston. Carolina enjoys teaching children her language and exploring the vibrant cultures of Latin America in a fun way and has been teaching languages to children for over 14 years in Colombia, Guatemala, and the United States – in private schools, public schools, and out-of-school settings. She is now a classroom K-3 Spanish teacher in Buckingham, Browne, and Nichols (BB&N) in Cambridge, MA. She is a member of MaFLA (Massachusetts Foreign Language Association), ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) and NNELL (National Network for Early Language Learning). In 2005, Carolina founded 1-2-3 Spanish Together, an early language music and curriculum designed to teach Spanish to children and their families and help other teachers learn the trade. She also shares a lot teaching tips on her website for teachers Fun for Spanish Teachers and her blog.

This event is sponsored by the Framingham Public Library and the Early Childhood Alliance of Framingham, a Coordinated Family and Community Engagement funded by the Department of Early Education and Care and administered by the Framingham Public Schools.
