

Family Education Workshop

(Geared for parents/caregivers with children of all ages)

What Makes Children Tick? Understanding How Sensory Input Impacts Your Child's Behaviors

This workshop will teach you to see your child in a new way. You will understand them on a whole new level!

- Do you ever wonder why a child is a picky eater or avoids certain clothes? Do you want to know why a child does not sit still or makes him/herself dizzy? Do you have a child who seems aggressive for no reason? Do you have a child who has behaviors that puzzle you?
- Participants will learn how children react to the world through their senses.
- This workshop will teach the fundamental concepts of Sensory Integration.
- This workshop will give several ideas and tactics to help children work through their sensory needs.
- Participants will walk away from this workshop with many resources and a brand new way of understanding their child or children.

About the Workshop Presenter: Jill Vetstein is a Licensed Social Worker, Early Intervention Specialist, Developmental Specialist, and Infant Massage Instructor. She is the founder of Nurturing Parents and Teachers and a mother of two. Her expertise includes early childhood development, infant mental health, parent/child relationships, and child-caring/parenting skills. Jill currently provides workshops, trainings, consults and classes to teachers, caregivers and parents. Jill is a member of The National Association of Social Work and the International Association of Infant Massage.

Date: February 28, 2012

Location: Framingham Public Library, Costin Room
49 Lexington Street, Framingham

Time: 6:30-8:30

For more information, contact Jane Cohen DeHaven at 508-782-6932 or e-mail at jdehaven@framingham.k12.ma.us

This workshop is sponsored by the Framingham Public Library and the Early Childhood Alliance of Framingham, a Coordinated Family and Community Engagement funded by the Department of Early Education and Care and administered by the Framingham Public Schools.

Special thanks to the Friends of the Framingham Library for their generous support of this event.