

I have been an educator in Framingham since 2005. I started my career as a teacher at Fuller Middle School, where I taught a mix of 6th, 7th, and 8th grade Social Studies. In September of 2012, I became an Assistant Principal at Fuller and then a year later began at Walsh.

Though I work with all students, this year my primary caseload is 6th grade and 7th grade (last names from A-K).

At home I have a wonderful wife (who also works in education) and two beautiful daughters, Mia and Emme.

Aside from education and my love of history, for my entire life, I have been interested in sports. When I was younger I played sports most seasons, and by the time I was in high school I was competing year round in soccer and track.

I am an avid Boston sports fan and spend my free time cheering for our local teams.
