Did you know...

- Brophy will have Summer Literacy Nights at the Framingham Public Library - Main Branch, 3 Tuesdays, from 6pm - 7pm this summer: June 25th, July 23rd, and August 20th. Each night will have a theme and will include prizes, activities and a read aloud from a Brophy Teacher.
- Summer Reading lists are now available!
- This is our last newsletter this year! We will periodically send out messages throughout the summer - especially about the Summer Literacy Nights. Everyone have a safe and happy summer!

Brophy Values

Be Safe
Be Prepared
Be Respectful
Be Responsible

Friday Folder

Each student receives a Friday Folder with notices from teachers, school administration, Brophy PTO, and community groups. Please remind your student to show you this information each Friday.

This week's Friday Folder included a flyer for Summer Learning Nights at the Framingham Public Library. Plus students received summer packets with a journal, Math Bingo, and more!

Thank You from the PTO

Thank you to all the parents, teachers, administrators and staff who helped with fundraising efforts and events this year! YOU make Brophy great!
