1. Please give a brief description of the scholarship:

Rosalie and Ralph had two sons, Matthew and David, both of whom needed extra special care, and both passed way before their time. This scholarship is in memory of Ralph and Rosalie, and should show a reflection in the recipient the characteristics they possessed.

2. Eligibility for the scholarship:

One of the many great traits of Rosalie and Ralph, was they took care of people. They took care of their sons, even though there were some severe illnesses and disabilities. And we thought that whomever would receive this scholarship, would be someone like-minded to Rosalie and Ralph. Someone who helps, and helps folks who can't help themselves. That said, we'd like our criteria to be along the lines of students who are active in helping others/volunteering/similar situation where they've got a family member who needs similar help. We would like that to be the criteria for scholarship and would like applicants to write a short essay about what they've done in that respect, and how it's affected their perspective.
